Introduction

Bancontact is the most popular and reliable payment method in Belgium. Users of participating Belgian banks can make payments online via the the online or mobile environment of their bank or Bancontact App using their Bancontact debit card. Within the app, multiple cards can be linked. Payments can be made via the screen and confirmed with a card reader code. It is also possible to scan a QR code from the screen and then pay via the app. Check the amount and select which card you want to use; then confirm the payment with your PIN. Most Belgian banks support Bancontact as a payment method.
